

ARTS & CULTURE

In the Town of Florenceville-Bristol

Andrew & Laura McCain Library (8 McCain St.)

Our library is situated at the heart of downtown Florenceville! Our library is fully accessible to persons with severe mobility problems. They host guest speakers, and innovative and educational workshops throughout the year.

Andrew and Laura McCain Art Gallery (8 McCain St.)

The Art Gallery is a non-profit, community Art Gallery operating on the banks of the St. John River in Florenceville-Bristol, New Brunswick. The Gallery is open throughout the year and presents work by regional and provincial artists and artisans. Exhibitions change monthly and feature work ranging from historical to contemporary. The Gallery strives to provide a professional venue and cultivate a broader appreciation and knowledge of the arts in New Brunswick.

On the Boardwalk Café & Wine (8754 Main St.)

Newly built in 2020, this hidden gem located in small town rural New Brunswick is not your typical restaurant. Fresh ingredients and a divine bakery combine to make any meal memorable. You will want to book your dinner reservations in advance to ensure your opportunity to savour flavours, sample great wines and be treated a little extra special.

Shogomoc Railway Site & Museum (9189 Main St.)

Step back in time as you tour the restored 1914 CPR station and view the three beautifully renovated train cars which are now home to a fine dining restaurant and a train Inn. The museum also has a small gift shop on-site selling town and train souvenirs and clothing. For a delicious treat, hard-scoop ice cream is served on the site.

Second Wind Music Centre (16 Curtis Rd.)

Second Wind Music Centre provides opportunities to learn an instrument, a venue to perform and listen to live music and other community musical activities.

River Arts Centre (8746 Main St.)

Where artists create, teach, learn and collaborate. We are a not-for-profit organization whose mission is to increase access, awareness and an appreciation of art in our community. Our vision for the River Art Centre & Studios is to provide affordable working studio space for artists to create, exhibit, teach and sell art and to provide a place for the community to gather, learn, and participate in the experience of art.

